Description: The Tactical Prisoner Debriefing Course is a three-day training course that teaches all types of law enforcement officers (Police, Corrections, Federal Agents, Parole, Probation, and other Law Enforcement Officers) from a variety of duty assignments (Narcotics, Patrol, Investigations, Terrorism, etc...), to conduct effective debriefings of new arrestees, jailed prisoners, prison inmates, probationers, parolees, and other individuals for the purpose of acquiring intelligence information and cultivating informants. Tactical Narcotics Debriefing course is the combined application of classroom instruction, skill-building exercises, careful evaluation, and practical immersion interviews using human subjects (role players) and a balanced realistic difficulty level. This training program provides all the knowledge, skills, and experience necessary to go forth and immediately place the techniques into play in the real world.

Topics covered: Rapport and Communication Enhancement -Tactical Introduction-- Common Factors Leading to Failure of the interviewing Process-Learn to illustrate the Benefits of Cooperation– Debriefing Gang Members- Cultural Etiquette Awareness for Debriefs + much, more!!!!

Who should attend: All Law Enforcement officers, Gang Officers, Corrections, Patrol, Parole, Probation, Narcotics Officers, Military Police, Security Forces, Investigators, and others?

Instructor: Pennsylvania State Police (retired) is a certified Tactical Interview Method instructor who has instructed this course since 2010 and has been a practitioner of this interview method since 2007. In fact, Corporal Wheeler, while actively engaged in counter-terrorist investigations for the PA State Police Intelligence Bureau created their Prisoner Debriefing Unit and worked closely with the NYPD Intelligence Division and Terrorist Interdiction Unit to cultivate an extensive cadre of informants who provided valuable intelligence on foreign terrorists operating in the US, domestic terrorists, extremists, gangs, drug traffickers, transnational organized criminal organizations and other criminals.
