Description: 99 Signs of Danger™ this class will make any law enforcement officer much more aware of impending danger. 99 Signs of Danger exposes the many indicators warning law enforcement officers that they are in danger of being attacked, imminently attacked, and about to be involved in a fight or flight situation. The creator, retired NYPD SGT, Lou Savelli says, “You can’t win a fight, you don’t know that you’re in”! This class exposes signs of impending attack, armed suspects, multiple subject danger situations, vehicle stop danger signs, and a host of other indicators. The most important objective of this class is Officer Safety. It is the ability to recognize a threat from someone or something (Threat Recognition). Unfortunately, in the field of law enforcement, dangerous situations can arise within a blink of an eye or when you least expect it.

Topics covered: 99 Signs things are about to go bad; and what you can do to protect yourself, Articulating the “Totality of the Circumstances”, Armed Suspect Characteristics, How to “safely and effectively “deal with Gang Members, Tactical Articulation of Police Actions + much ,more!!!!

Who should attend: All Law Enforcement officers, Gang Officers, Corrections, Patrol, Parole, Probation, Narcotics Officers, Military Police, Security Forces, Investigators, and others.

Instructor: Sgt. Lou Savelli, NYPD-retired, has over 25 years as a law enforcement officer and many additional years as a law enforcement specialized trainer. He has worked as an undercover officer, a decoy (potential victim) undercover, a plainclothes proactive anti-crime officer, and has observed and interdicted numerous street crimes (robbery, attempted robbery, auto theft, larceny, car-jacking, burglary, attempted murder, assault, pickpocket crimes, and other street crimes) in progress. He is the author of Blue on Blue: Recognizing, Avoiding and Surviving Armed Encounters with other Officers, a training program used to train thousands of officers in the NY/NJ/CT region.
