Description: DCJS Certified. This course is a Pre-Requisite for any Instructor Courses.

This course will give officers the ability to research, prepare and communicate knowledge in the field of law enforcement. Lessons focus on setting instructional objectives, factors that influence adult learning, communication skills, the instructional process, and methods of evaluating course effectiveness. Successful students will receive Certification for General Topics: Police Instructor. It is recommended that each student have significant experience as a police or peace officer, very good performance evaluations, possess good communication skills and above average moral character. The requirements for instructor certification are pursuant to Part 6023 of Title 9 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (NYCRR). Please be prepared for a very intense 2 weeks of instruction.

Students will be responsible for 2 quizzes and 4 presentations (one-minute, two-minutes, five-minutes, and ten-minutes). A fifty (50) minute presentation with corresponding lesson plan and power point on a law enforcement related subject will be required for successful completion of the IDC course.

Homework will be assigned every night. Please plan your time accordingly for nightly assignments and weekend preparation for your 50-minute presentation.
