Description: Today's criminals are more street savvy and far more educated on law enforcement tactics than ever! Today's law enforcement officers need an edge for defeating these cunning criminals. Identifying Deceptive Behavior™ (IDB) provides the tactical, investigative and communication edge law enforcement officer's need. It goes far beyond what is usually presented in traditional classroom settings. This well-researched and highly effective training program will provide officers with a variety of knowledge, skills and tactics for detecting verbal and nonverbal manifestations of deception. Through a series of dynamic lectures, video and audio exercises, and practical exercises, officers learn to detect deception and avoid pitfalls related to the failure of identifying deceptive behavior by criminals and suspects.

Topics covered: Identify and decipher deceptive behavior in suspects, know how to quickly recognize evasive verbal and non-verbal behaviors, know how to redirect evasive words and use your body language to avoid dangerous situations, + much, more!!!!

Who should attend: All Law Enforcement officers, Investigators, Corrections, Patrol, Parole, Probation, Narcotics Officers, Military Police, Security Forces, Investigators, and others.

Instructor: James Partee is a former Police Chief who worked in Law Enforcement in both Missouri and Connecticut for a combined 27 years. He worked his way from Patrol Officer, to Narcotics/Street Gangs Investigator, Youth Detective, DARE/School Resource Officer, Major Case Squad, CID Commander, Narcotics Enforcement Team Commander, Public Information Officer, & Police Chief. He is a certified IDB, De-escalation, Tactical Debriefing and Interview/Interrogation instructor for Homefront Protective Group, and has trained thousands of law enforcement officers across the US.
