

DE-ESCALATION TRAINING PROGRAM

WHAT IS THE PROGRAM?

This project was made possible with a grant from the US DOJ COPS Office to the University of New Haven, grant #15JCOPS-22-GK-03552-PPSE. This federally funded program will promote de-escalation tactics within law enforcement. The primary goal is to deliver the most advanced de-escalation training curated by research, innovation, and implementation of best practices.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

You will attend a free, two-day training program that will deliver best practices in de-escalation including procedural justice, correct de-escalation language, officer adjustments for varying threat stages and environments, body language, conflict management, recognizing mental health and disability issues and means to adjust interactions based upon rapid personality identification.

Date	Time	Location	Cost
August 21 - 22, 2024	8:30 AM - 4:30 PM	St. Thomas Aquinas College 125 Route 340, Sparkill, NY. 10976	Free

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- This training is only open to the first 20 currently sworn law enforcement officials that register using the registration QR code below.
- The form must be completed in its entirety.
- Materials will be provided.
- This training is being co-sponsored by the Rockland County Police and Public Safety Academy.

NEWS ARTICLES

WEBSITE

YOUTUBE

Lisa Dadio

Retired Police Lieutenant
Director of the National De-Escalation Training Center - Northeast Region
Director of the Center for Advanced Policing at University of New Haven
✉ LDadio@newhaven.edu

REGISTER HERE!

Regional De-Escalation Training
Center Principles & Practices
August 21 - 22, 2024

